How to log on Chromebook/ Laptop

Logging on the Domain

When students are entering their login credentials to login the domain of a laptop, they will use their username and password.

Example: 5 digit number
Password: Given password provided with an exclamation ! at the end.

Chromebook Login
When students are logging onto the chromebook they will need to type in their given email address and password.

Example: Email address

Password: password provided with an exclamation point.